Dear Parents/Carers,

World Book Day – this Thursday 2nd March

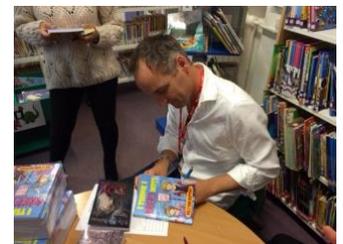

To celebrate World Book Day this year, Nursery to Year 5 will spend the day focusing on the book Flood by Alvaro F. Villa. This wordless picture book is about a family who are forced to move out of their home, as the nearby river is about to burst its banks.

The children will be doing a range of activities around this book including green-screening and Puppet Pals to retell the story, Chatterpix for character accounts and GarageBand sound tracks to make a theme tune for the book. In order to get into the mood of the book, this year we would like the children to come in non-school uniform (not dressed up).

What book would you save from a flood? We would also like each of the children to bring in a favourite book they would save from a flood to share with another class during the afternoon session. You may wish to practice reading the book aloud at home.

A gentle reminder about the author Edward Trayer, who will be visiting Holy Trinity for a FREE family workshop this Wednesday evening between 5-6.30pm. Tea and coffee will be available upon arrival so please arrive promptly. You will have the opportunity to learn about the characters in the Felicity Brady books between 5-6pm followed by a book signing from 6-6.30pm. Please see separate price list (sent previously) for details of his books to buy.

Just to make you aware that we will have a photographer in on Thursday from the Hackney Gazette. He will be touring the school, taking photographs of the above activities. We will ensure photographs are taken of children with permission only.

Please find World Book Day voucher attached to this letter. We look forward to an exciting week ahead,

Kind regards,

Charlotte Collins

Assistant Head (Literacy/KS1)
